Who qualifies for an Affordable Housing Unit?

Applicants must be in core housing need, as determined by the table below which outlines the Core Needs Income Threshold (CNIT) figures for 2017 in Airdrie (maximum income monthly). The minimum income per month was created as a way to ensure affordability requirements. Individuals with a rent to income ratio greater than 50% may not qualify for being placed on the waitlist.

Bedroom units/rent per month	Minimum income monthly	Maximum income monthly
1 Bedroom ($690- $850)	$1380-$1700	$3416
2 Bedroom ($860- $990)	$1720- $1980	$4208
3 Bedroom ($1100)	$2200	$4666

How will I know if I qualify for an Affordable Housing unit?

Applicants will be contacted by Airdrie Housing Limited as to the status of their application either by phone, email or letter. Please note that although you may qualify, there are a limited number of units and they will be filled according to the waitlist.

For how long will I be entitled to the Affordable Housing unit?

Once qualified, clients are required to sign a fixed-term lease. When the lease term expires, if the client continues to qualify and there have been no significant tenancy issues, the lease can be renewed.

Prospective Tenant Information

1. Airdrie Housing requests that all tenants carry CONTENT INSURANCE on their belongings. This is because Airdrie Housing's insurance DOES NOT replace tenant belongings in the event of damage, such as from a flood or fire.
2. Airdrie Housing is rarely able to provide more than 30 days notice that an Affordable Unit is available. Applicants are advised to investigate possible penalties for breaking their current lease agreements should they have to make such a decision.
3. Once offered an Affordable Housing unit, the process is as follows:
 - Airdrie Housing and the client will sign an agreement in which the client agrees to move into the unit within 30 days.
 - The move-in date is scheduled with the property manager.
4. On the MOVE-IN DAY, the client and the property manager will:
 - Complete the walk-through inspection
 - Sign the fixed-term lease
5. The client must provide the property manager with the following:
 - A CERTIFIED CHEQUE for the damage deposit (equivalent to one month of rent);
 - A cheque for the first month's rent
 - Post-dated cheques for the remainder of the lease term.
6. Clients must pay for their own ELECTRICITY and as it can take several days to have your current utility account transferred to your new address – or a new account created – we advise prospective tenants to look into this process ahead of time.
